Will there be a Face-to-Face Event?
No, DIA’s Global Labeling Conference will only be offered virtually. Additional information about how to access the meeting virtually will be forthcoming.

Why did DIA decide to convert the Global Labeling Conference to a Virtual Meeting?
DIA’s mission—to work across the healthcare continuum to ensure patients have the therapies needed—couldn’t be more essential than during times like these. DIA’s Global Labeling Conference will remain an interactive, multi-day event that brings together professionals from around the world to share approaches, processes, and tools to ensure the availability of effective labeling content meeting the needs of patients, consumers, and prescribers. This year, DIA will accomplish that goal via a live, digital platform.

When will I get more information on the virtual meeting?
More information is forthcoming in the coming weeks.

When will the virtual meeting take place?
The virtual meeting will be held April 20-21, 2020, the original dates of the conference. The agenda times will be adjusted and posted in the next week.

Why did you wait until now?
DIA leadership has been gathering to discuss the situation at-length, in coordination with external advisory panel of key stakeholders to support evidence-based decision making. The advisory panel recognized that industry understanding of the potential reach of the virus has changed significantly in the last 24 hours, which has made it impossible to accurately assess risk.

Will the Face-to-Face Global Labeling Conference rescheduled to take place later this year?
No, there will not be a Face-to-Face event in 2020.

Will attendees and exhibitors be refunded for airline tickets?
Registrants are responsible for canceling their own hotel and airline reservations. DIA is not responsible for any airfare, hotel, or other costs incurred by registrants.

Will paid attendee badge registrations be refunded?
All attendees will automatically be transferred to the virtual meeting, giving them access to both the live virtual meeting and the recorded sessions post-conference.

Can I transfer my registration to a colleague?
Yes, should you not be able to attend the virtual conference, you may transfer your registration to a colleague. Please contact Americas.Customer.Service@DIAglobal.org to process a transfer.

Will attendees and exhibitors be refunded for hotel costs?

How do I cancel my hotel room?
Please contact the Hyatt Regency Fairfax directly at 877.803.7534 to confirm the cancellation of your hotel room. Please note that cancellations must be received at 11:59PM local time, three days before your scheduled arrival (i.e. reservations for April 19 must be cancelled by 11:59PM ET on April 16). If you cancel after this deadline, you would be charged for one hotel room night.

Will exhibitors be refunded for booth space?
Exhibitors will not be refunded for booth/marketing opportunities. Exhibitors will be offered the opportunity to transfer their monies to the virtual options available for Global Labeling 2020, or other Marketing Opportunities within the 2020 calendar year. Please see the dedicated exhibitor communication that went out and reach out to Heej Ko (Heej.Ko@DIAglobal.org) regarding additional questions.

Can I still register for the Global Labeling Conference?
Yes, registration is still open.

Can I transfer my meeting registration to a different DIA event?

What if I can’t attend the virtual meeting live? Will sessions be recorded?

When will the recordings be made available?
We expect all recordings to be made available no more than three weeks after the live virtual meeting ends.

How can I network virtually?
We are looking into networking options for the Virtual Event.

Which sessions are available virtually?
DIA will be releasing a virtual meeting agenda in the next few weeks which will include all sessions that are available live virtually.

Can I claim CE for sessions I participated in for the live virtual meeting?
Yes. We will be able to offer IACET and ACPE credit for all sessions attended during the live virtual meeting. The CE portal will be open on May 5. There will be a CE Attendance form you will need to complete and send back to NAEEvents@DIAglobal.org for the sessions you attended by April 28, 2020, so your attendance can be loaded into the system in time for the portal to open.
